Presenter:

Margaret MacPherson,

Community Research Associate
Centre for Research & Education on Violence
Against Women & Children (CREVAWC)

Western Education

Centre for Research & Education
on Violence Against Women & Children

Ms MacPherson's work in developing the content and curriculum at the Centre, has provided her with unique insights into the intersections of abuse in relationships, across a person's lifespan.

Learning Objectives:

1. Understanding the inter-sectoral relationship of domestic violence and elder abuse.
2. Understanding the prevalence of domestic violence among older adults.
3. Recognize the dynamics of power and control in relationships of older adult and domestic violence.
4. Identify the risk factors and complexities of domestic violence in older adults.
5. Gaining an appreciation for the need, for interdisciplinary approaches and collaborations, to assist victims of domestic violence.
6. Navigating the range of services available to older adults as victims of domestic violence.
